

ALL SAINTS DAY-NOVEMBER 1ST

This Tuesday, November 1st, is All Saints Day—a holy day of obligation. This day is a celebration of all the saints and holy people who have lived faith-filled lives and are an example and inspiration for us. The Mass schedule for this holy day of obligation is 7 pm on Monday, October 31st (Vigil Mass); 7 am, 8:30 am and 7 pm on Tuesday, November 1st.

ALL SOULS

All Souls envelopes may be turned in all month. On All Souls Day we remember those family members and friends who have gone before us in faith. Masses are scheduled throughout the year.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AT MASS

On Sunday, Nov, 6th at the 10am Mass, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be offered. This Sacrament is intended to bring God's grace and peace especially to those with chronic illness and the elderly. This Sacrament reassures us that God is with us during the difficult times of our lives. This Sacrament also helps us to liken our own personal hardships to the suffering of Christ. Who should receive the Sacrament? Those suffering with a chronic physical/mental illness, and the elderly. If you know of a neighbor that has difficulty coming to Mass, you may want to offer them a ride.

FEAST OF ST. LEO

The celebration of St. Leo's life and Sainthood is celebrated each year on Nov 10th, a Thursday this year. It has been our tradition as a Parish to celebrate St. Leo's Feast on a Sunday. The Parish celebration will be held on Sunday Nov 13th, with Eucharistic Adoration following the noon Mass, concluding with evening prayer and Benediction at 5pm. What a beautiful way to give thanks for the many blessings that we have received as a Parish. There will be sign up sheets in the back of the church to insure that the Blessed Sacrament will not be left unattended.

Pray for our sick... Don't forget to ask your neighbors, friends, relatives to help us by purchasing a Mega Raffle chance. They are eligible to pay monthly. It can't get any easier than that!

The first drawing for $1,000 is November 7th – so be sure to have your yellow Mega Raffle envelope turned in by October 31st.
